

CANDIDATE INFORMATION SHEET

Election to the Board of Directors of Hammocks Community Association Incorporated

NAME: Andrew Costa

Address: 15112 SW 109th Lane, Miami, Florida 33196

Describe your background, education, qualifications, and any other information about yourself that you consider relevant for Members to know:

Born and raised in Miami, Florida. I have lived most of my life in West Kendall, having attending Claude Pepper Elementary, Herbert A Ammons Middle, and Felix Varela Sr. High. In 2008, I graduated from National School of Technology - Kendall Campus with a diploma in Medical Assistant. After serving the Homestead community for two years in private practices, I transitioned to federal service in 2010 where I have dedicated the past 15 years to caring for our nations Veterans. Throughout my career, I have held progressively higher managerial positions with my roles spanning from clinical and administrative services, providing me with a strong foundation in managing operations, driving performance improvement, and navigating change. I purchased my home in 2018 in Vizcaya at the Hammocks. I joined the Vizcaya Board in September 2023 and was appointed Secretary. In January 2024, I volunteered to take the role of President and continue in this role to date. I joined the Hammocks Board in March 2025 and have been committed to ensuring our community is managed properly. I am a dedicated Civil Servant who finds great pride in giving back to his community.
